Sustainable Aviation Fuels
time for take-off

Sergi Alegre

Sergi Alegre (Ph D. Contemporary History) is the actual Director General of Airport Regions Council.

Due his position he has participated as speaker in plenty of conferences and events focused on the different topics of the relationships between airports and territories and has been involved in the development of numerous EU funded projects on these topics, especially on the environmental ones like OLGA, TULIPS, STARGATE, ALIGHT, D-AIR, ANIMA and on the transport ones like LAIrA and MULTIMODX, etc. At the present moment, he is member of the advisory committee of eight (8) EU funded project and is actively participating in ARCADE project

He is member of the Board of Aeroports de Catalunya and member of the Advisory Committee of Aeroports du Paris Group, AeroS Network, Moeve Foundation and member too of some of the most important European initiatives like the Alliance for a Zero Emission Aviation, the FlyingGreen Stakeholder Engagement and Consultation Group (EUROCONTROL), the Renewable and Low-Carbon Fuels Value Chain Industrial Alliance and the Zero Pollution Stakeholder Forum. He is too member of the CAEP-ICAO WG2.

Previously, he was for 27 (twenty-seven) years vice-mayor of the city of El Prat being in charge of the transport department; 16 (sixteen) years member of the Transport Committee of the Barcelona Metropolitan Government and 8 (eight) years member of the board of Transports Metropolitans de Barcelona (TMB).